Charles' IB SKILLS AND PRAXIS

Global Politics

FOR THE IB DIMPLOMA

Chungsik Yu

Chillontext

Contents

Introduction

Part 1 Power, sovereignty and international relations

1 Definitions and theories of power

2 Types of power

3 Evolving nature of state sovereignty

4 Legitimacy of state power

5 The United Nations

6 Intergovernmental organizations (IGOs)

7 Nongovernmental organizations (NGOs), multinational corporations (MNCs) and trade unions

8 Social movements, resistance movements and violent protest movements

9 Political parties

10 Informal forums

11 Legitimacy of non-state actors

12 Global governance

13 Cooperation: treaties, collective security, strategic alliances, economic cooperation, informal cooperation

14 Conflict: interstate war, intrastate war, terrorism, strikes and demonstrations

Part 2 Human rights:

15 Definitions of human rights

16 The UN's Universal Declaration of Human Rights (1948)

17 Developments in human rights across time and space

18 Human rights laws and treaties

19 Protection and enforcement of human rights and different levels

20 Monitoring human rights agreements

21 Claims on human rights

22 Human rights violations

23 individual vs collective rights

24 Universal rights vs cultural relativism

25 Politicization of human rights

Part 3 Development

26 Sustainable development and human rights

27 Measuring development

28 Political factors

29 Economic factors

30 Social factors

31 Environmental factors

32 Institutional factors

33 Models of development

34 Approaches for developing the economy

35 Approaches for developing society

36 Globalization: wins and losses

37 Inequality and development: role of politics

38 Sustainable developments: role of politics

Part 4 Peace and conflict

39 Peace, conflict and violence in positive peace and structural violence

40 Types of conflict

41 Justifications of violence including just war theory

42 Causes of conflict

43 Parties to conflict

44 Manifestations of conflict including non-violence

45 Conflict dynamics

46 Third party involvement in conflict and humanitarian intervention

47 Peacemaking: negotiation and treaties

48 Peacebuilding: reconciliation and work of justice institutions

Conclusion